THE SITUATION.

Watchman, what of the night? We have heard some friends express rather gloomy forebodings in regard to the situation just now. They say that if Cleveland is elected there will a great row and civil war, for the Republicans will feel sure that there has not been a fair vote, especially in the Southern States, which they think, ought to give a Republican majority. Others of our friends with whom we have conversed think there is a probability of the Republicans carrying some election districts of this State if not all, so that in the event of Blaine's election the whole | Virginia . . . . 6 State may ultimately be lost to the Democratic party. # BOUND TO BEAT BLAINE.

Col. Ellison S. Keitt Gives a Hopeful Account of the Situation in New York.

(From the News and Courier, 21st inst.) (From the News and Courier, 21st first.)

Col. Ellison S. Kwirt has been d ing some excellent campaign work for Cleveland in New York and New Jersey. For some time past he has been speaking in the darriets in the upper part of New York City, trout 47th to $2nd street, and on Thursday night last made a rousing speech to a mess meeting in New ersey. Col. Kelit is quite an effective popular speaker, and his efforts in behalf of the National Democracy will doubtless have a good effect.

Col. Kelit has not been cast down by the result of the recast election in Ohlo, and is confident that Cleveland will be elected. The following extract from a private letter from Col. Kelit to a gentleman in this city will give the public some idea of how the situation in New York appears through South Carolina spectacles:

'The result of the electron in Olrio is no more The methodists have but just laced their seal upon its centennial laced l minds chiefly New York that has thirty-six eternly otes. Hendricks is a power in Indi-a, and that St-te is certain. The great fight will be in New York, Matters here are mixed in consequence of local politics. Butler will take about ten thousand Democratic votes from Cleveland, but that will be more than rotes from Cievenand, but that will be more than set off by Republicans who will yete with the Democrats. I have been essured by a Republican who is in a position to know, that Cleveland will get fifty thousand Republicans certain, and mail likelihood double that number. There has been a close estimate of the state, and Cleveland will come to King's County, which meludes New York City, with a majority of the thousand If this turn out to be true, he will carry New York State by a large voic, as the Repub-licans always had a large majority in the coun-ties outside of King's County.
